Why Should My Child Continue in Music?
-Taken from the Be Part of the Music Project: www.bepartofthemusic.org

- The combined results of 30 studies indicate that music instruction is linked to significantly improved reading skills.
- A 2000 Gallup Poll indicated that 92% of people who play an instrument say they were glad they learned to do so.
- Students who participate in music have the lowest levels of current and lifelong use of alcohol, tobacco and illicit drugs among any group in our society. - H. Con. Res 266, U.S. Senate, June 2000.
- The College Entrance Examination Board found that students involved in public school music programs scored 107 points higher on the SAT.
- The physician and biologist Lewis Thomas found that music majors comprise the highest percentage of accepted medical students (66%).
- Admissions officers at 70% of the nation’s major universities have stated that high school credit and achievement in the arts are significant considerations for admission to their institutions.
- “If I were not a physicist, I would probably be a musician. I often think in music. I live my daydreams in music. I see my life in terms of music.” – Albert Einstein
- The life of the arts, far from being an interruption, a distraction, in the life of the nation, is close to the center of the nation’s purpose – and is a test to the quality of a nation’s civilization.” – President John F. Kennedy

Special Thanks To…
- Mr. “CK” Clark-Kaczmarek, Principal of Buffett for supporting the Music Department in every way possible.
- The entire guidance department at Buffett for tirelessly working with us to ensure students are placed in the correct music classes.
- The Buffett secretarial staff for making our lives easier so we can focus on teaching and playing music.
- The entire Buffett custodial staff for their never-ending support of keeping our facilities clean and helping us move instruments around the building.
- The Buffett PE teachers for allowing us to “borrow” their teaching space and their students for extra band rehearsals.
- Ms. Arvie, Mrs. Baddley, Ms. Craven and Mr. Miller for being such supportive colleagues to work with.
- The parents of Buffett Band students for allowing us the opportunity to work with their amazing children every day here at Buffett.

Thank you for supporting music education at Buffett!

Your students have worked very hard for tonight’s concert! Please respect their hard work by doing the following: turn off all cell phones, refrain from entering or leaving the gym in the middle of songs and encourage younger children to remain quiet during the performance. Congratulations to all of tonight’s performers! The Buffett Music Department wishes you a safe and relaxing holiday season!
